EDITORIAL COMMENT

I feel that I am perhaps in a better position to realize and recognize to what universal studio use the Standard Casting Directory is being put, than perhaps anyone connected with the industry at present, and consequently of what benefit with regard to their employment the advertising artists obtain by their consistent representation in this very valuable publication.

It is in my line of work to spend approximately six or seven hours of each day with the executives and directors of the various studios now producing in Hollywood. In every office without exception, I find the Standard Casting Directory obviously and conveniently within reach, ready for instant use when a part is to be filled. Men who have not the time to spend in interviews with you, of the profession, find that your pictorial introduction to them through the pages of the Standard Casting Directory is saving them much time in the completing of their casts.

I wonder if you realize what this means? That for the nominal price you pay for the space you use in the Standard, you receive thorough and certain representation with the people whom you should meet and who should know you and your ability. In fact, I question if you could in any way reach them for an interview, were it not for a Directory of the type of the Standard.

Owing to a great many circumstances, it is quite possible that you may not realize that perhaps in only one case out of ten can you directly trace an engagement to the Standard. However that may be, the fact remains that your picture in the Standard brings you to the attention of the producer and leaves with him what perhaps may be only a suggestion which in the development of that and future stories may lead to a most profitable engagement, no matter what the means may be of your securing it. The best proof of this lies in the growth of our publication and the unsolicited recommendations from producers of note.

What I want to bring home to you is this:—That it is not the amount of space you use that brings results, but the consistent and consecutive appearance of your advertisement in the Standard, as it reaches the desk of the officials of the studio month after month. It is of much greater advantage for the artist to appear in a smaller space covering a period of months than for them to subscribe to a larger advertisement for a shorter length of time.

Representation is apparently the thing today, and the Standard Casting Directory offers you the best medium for representation. And it follows that the more complete our Directory, the more value it will bring to the studios and, in direct ratio, the more results it will bring to its advertisers.

What the Critics Write:

"LOVE AND GLORY"

The outstanding and most pleasing performance is that of WALLACE MAC DONALD, who shows great histrionic ability.

"THY NAME IS WOMAN"

The Spanish heavy of WALLACE MAC DONALD was an achievement for the young actor.

"THE SPOILERS"

WALLACE MAC DONALD submerged his personality into a convincing characterization as "the Broncho Kid."

"LEARNING TO LOVE"

Excellent support from WALLACE MAC DONALD.

"THE SEA HAWK"

The vivid aggressiveness and work of WALLACE MAC DONALD was a delight.

"THE LADY"

WALLACE MAC DONALD was perfectly cast and played his two sided role with ease, poise and conviction.

Why Procrastinate?

If you envy your business friends and competitors in the comfort and contentment they enjoy in the TAFT BUILDING, why not follow their lead and establish your offices in this beautiful building?

If the prestige of substantial business neighbors means anything to you, why do you put off joining the Taft Building Circle of carefully selected tenants?

If courteous and efficient building service favorably impress your customers and clients, why do you postpone giving them this business attention?

—Let's talk things over—

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Month by month the Standard Casting Directory is placed on your desks in an improved form; month by month it grows; and month by month it is responsible for a higher degree of liason between the studios and the advertisers.

Its growth in size and popularity spells RESULTS FOR ITS ADVERTISERS. I tell you, it is great to be more or less responsible for a thing that is doing the work the Standard Casting Directory is doing! All of us on the staff take a great degree of pride and satisfaction in the increasing value of our product, but—we want you to feel the same satisfaction and responsibility that we do.

I am speaking now to the artist and advertiser, not to the producer. We want you to get this angle on the Standard—that it is YOUR directory, published in YOUR interests, and maintained solely by YOURSELVES.

This well equipped office and each member of the staff is ever ready to serve you and your interests whatever your requests may be, and we are asking you to take a more personal interest in us and our work, to feel a greater degree of ownership in this YOUR DIRECTORY.

It has been found necessary to temporarily suspend the New York department pending re-organization, but to our clients and friends in the East we give this assurance—that upon the reinstatement of the department a greater proportion of efficiency and form will be displayed.

Appearances

Renting an office is like buying a suit of clothes. Either you desire and are willing to pay for the best or else you are satisfied with a make-shift.

If the public judge you by your personal appearance, it must follow that the same judgment is passed upon your business surroundings.

The TAFT BUILDING is Hollywood's finest office building, and the luxurious way our tenants furnish their offices proves that appearances do speak for themselves.

Why not join the "Taft Circle of Carefully Selected Tenants."

EDITORIAL COMMENT

It may seem to some that the cost of advertising in the STANDARD is expensive so we would like to explain in a brief way the prices of our space and the representation that the artist receives.

Our smallest space (1/16 page) costs only $3.00 a month if taken on a six months basis. This space is large enough to give you a fairly good reproduction of your photograph with your name, telephone number and several lines for copy.

The most popular space (1/4 page) costs you a little less than $11.00 a month if taken on a six months basis. This will give you a very good reproduction of your photograph and plenty of room for telephone numbers, copy, etc.

Other spaces up to a full page are priced on approximately the same ratio as the above.

NOW STOP and figure the cost of getting your photographic representation in any other way to almost five hundred people in the studios each month, who either do the casting or have something to say in regard to the cast. It can't be done at any price! And if it could how long would your representation be up to date and in an accessible file? NOT LONG.

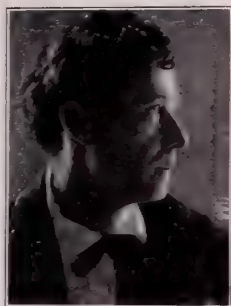

The Standard is revised and printed monthly. For thirty days the advertiser has up-to-date representation with the producer, director, casting director and all others in Hollywood and New York. In a great many studios the back numbers are filed and referred to many times during the year.

We know that our medium of reaching just the people you want at just the right time cannot be duplicated at present no matter what the cost.

Give this earnest thought and join the large and representative group of players who have tried and proven the ability of the Standard to represent them.

We want to welcome to the pages of the Standard the department of "Writers and Scenarists" which has resulted in much laudatory comment from directors and producers of note. We intend to make this department representative and of great value to the studios thereby advancing a little farther toward our goal of "better representation for all engaged in the motion picture industry."

EDITORIAL BY
WILLIAM A. JOHNSTON
FROM MOTION PICTURE NEWS

“SAW our old friend George Irving the other evening in “The Goose Hangs High,” and he gives one of the finest pieces of acting I have ever seen on the screen. George Irving is one of the best directors. But I imagine he figured things out in this sensible fashion: there are a lot of high class directors these days but painfully few Lewis Stones. So—all credit to him—he made the change. And unless I guess very badly this versatile and highly accomplished actor will figure very prominently from now on.”

RICHARD THORPE

REVIEWERS OPINION OF PICTURES WRITTEN AND DIRECTED BY RICHARD THORPE

The director has mingled comedy and rip-roaring melodrama with praiseworthy skill, with the result that there isn't a dull moment in the entire film, the action speeds along like a house afire and the interest never lags. Also, there is more of a human touch to the plot than is generally found.

And all Directors, Assistants, Production Managers and Casting Directors of independent studios and production units:

We are placing in your hands today the largest and most comprehensive issue of the Standard Casting Directory which we have ever published.

However, our responsibility does not cease with the physical delivery of your Directory to you. On the contrary we have the interests of our clients at heart and wish to be of constant assistance to them in the furthering of their interests. To this end a department of our organization spends its entire time in the checking, classifying and completing of our lists and this department is always at your service. Often there is important information you may require regarding one of our clients which is not covered in their advertisements, such as recent releases, a probable return from location or a change of phone after the Directory is published. For any one of these or many other reasons please feel free to call our office and you will find us eager to serve you.

The players appearing in the Standard Casting Directory are making an honest effort to engage your attention with the hope and prospect of appearing in some of your future productions. In return for this effort on their part and whatever usefulness the Standard has been to you in the completing of your casts, we ask that, all things being equal, our clients receive the benefit of your consideration and that the Standard Casting Directory be credited with the accomplishment.

Thanking you for your past cooperation and good will, we remain,

Cordially yours,

The Standard

Reviews of "The Goose Hangs High"

Edward Peil, Jr., who used to be Johnny Jones in the kid pictures is proving himself a great juvenile and is one of the big hits of the picture as the son. Comments around me about him were most favorable.—Grace Kingsley, The Times.

I wish to take this opportunity of expressing my complete satisfaction and gratwho is casting a picture, it is also of great benefit to the players. In fact, I do not see how any of them can afford to be out of it.

EDITORIAL BY
WILLIAM A. JOHNSTON

* * *

“SAW our old friend George Irving the other evening in “The Goose Hangs High,” and he gives one of the finest pieces of acting I have ever seen on the screen. George Irving is one of the best directors. But I imagine he figured things out in this sensible fashion: there are a lot of high class directors these days but painfully few Lewis Stones. So—all credit to him—he made the change. And unless I guess very badly this versatile and highly accomplished actor will figure very prominently from now on.”

September 15, 1924.

Standard Casting Directory, Inc.,
616 Taft Building,
Hollywood, Calif.

Gentlemen:

I have found the more recent issues of the Standard Casting Directory of very practical service in selecting both principals and people for the lesser parts in current productions by First National's own units.

One suggestion I believe would be of particular help to those producers who cast their own pictures, or through their casting directors, as the case may be, and perhaps of equal importance to the artists who advertise in the Standard Casting Directory, is the use of a profile view as well as a full face picture. This would in many cases permit of a more accurate determination of suitability.

The Standard Casting Directory has been especially helpful in the selection of people for minor parts, and in this respect the succeeding issues have become practically a standard reference work.

It is only natural to wish for the continued success of your undertaking and to voice appreciation for its practical value in our casting activities as each new story is put into preparation.

Very truly yours,

EJH:EE

EDITORIAL

"Out of sight, out of mind—out of the Standard, out of the business."
(Signed) Bill Beaudine.

(Excerpt from a letter to the Standard.)

This sentiment expressed in an unsolicited letter from William Beaudine, director of Mary Pickford in "Little Annie Rooney," and published in our May issue would be a rather egotistical statement to make did it originate with us; but, coming as it does from one of the most successful directors of the current year, it bears considerable weight as an unbiased opinion of our publication and its service.

When a subscriber of the importance of the writer of this letter offers this tribute it behooves the artists of the industry to avail themselves of this means of advertising their abilities. With rates moderate enough to fit any salary, the Standard is each month numbering new clients among its advertisers and is furnishing to the studios and producers closer contact with the large group of players availing themselves of space.

Don't think you CANNOT AFFORD TO ADVERTISE in the Standard; feel rather that you CANNOT AFFORD TO REMAIN OUT of it. Rates as low as $3.00 per issue are offered to our customers, increasing proportionately according to the space used.

Don't be "out of mind" because you are "out of sight"—be a live one "in the business"—GET IN THE STANDARD.

GEORGE ANDRE BERANGER

TEN YEARS AGO—"The comedy honors of the film must go to Beranger—SOME ACTOR." —"Variety."

TEN DAYS AGO—"Andre Beranger gives a splendid performance. Quizzical, human, but withal convincing, he is THE BRIGHTEST SPOT IN THE PICTURE." —"L. A. Times."

RIGHT THIS MINUTE—"Sensible movies—as a working model we might submit this week's feature at McVicker's (Malcolm St. Clair's "Are Parents People?"). Players and director were keenly interested as they worked on this picture. Some of ITS BEST MOMENTS ARE THOSE PLAYED BY ANDRE BERANGER—a fine piece of work. WE HOPE TO SEE MORE FROM BERANGER. HE IS OF THE BEST—" —"Chicago Daily News" 26-5-25

"There's Andre Beranger too. If you don't believe THERE'S KICK IN HIS WORK, run over (to McVicker's Theatre) and be convinced." —"Chicago Daily Tribune" 28 5-25

Reviews of "The Goose Hangs High"

Edward Peil, Jr., who used to be Johnny Jones in the kid pictures is proving himself a great juvenile and is one of the big hits of the picture as the son. Comments around me about him were most favorable.—Grace Kingden, The Times.
Edward Peil, Jr., is a find.—Variety.
Edward Peil, Jr., romps with the part in great style. His exuberance indeed is one of the mainstays of the comedy.—Orlando Northcutt, Express.

The Standard Casting Directory, Inc.,
818 Taft Building,
Hollywood, California

Gentlemen:

It gives me great pleasure to heartily endorse your publication.

In my opinion the Standard
Directory is not only beneficial to producers, directors and their assistants, but has become a necessity in every sense of the word. I may add that my assistant, Wallace Fox, considers your directory his "BIBLE" and is never without it.

Trusting you will continue to enjoy the success you so deservedly merit, and with kind personal wishes, I am

Yours sincerely,

EO:K

STANDARD INSURANCE FOR THE ARTIST

You will all admit it is good sound business to carry insurance. Not that you expect to be injured or die—but just in case that should happen—your are willing to risk a small percentage of your income for the protection of yourself and your dependents.

Right in line with this idea, advertising in the STANDARD CASTING DIRECTORY offers you a new departure in insurance. We are insuring your professional life and our policy is a blanket one. There are no exceptions or trick clauses that hinder collection in the event of calamity.

Our insurance embodies the following points:

1. PARTIAL DISABILITY. Protection against injury to your reputation through your inability to secure engagements because you are being overlooked by the studios.
2. PERMANENT DISABILITY. Assistance in the presentation of your talents to the right persons in the right way and thereby avoiding the necessity of leaving the business because of the lack of engagements.
3. DEATH. Opportunity to reinstate yourself in the minds of studio officials following an absence from the screen, whatever the cause.

The premium for this insurance is from $3.00 to $60.00 per month—just whatever you feel best suits your needs. Think this over and decide to assure yourself a greater number of weekly salary checks during the year by consistent advertising in the STANDARD CASTING DIRECTORY. We will gladly consult with you at your convenience.

Reviews of "The Goose Hangs High"

Edward Peil, Jr., who used to be Johnny Jones in the kid pictures is proving himself a great juvenile and is one of the big hits of the pic-able."—Grace Kingsley, The Times.

Edward Peil, Jr., is a find.—Variety.

Edward Peil, Jr., romps with the part in great style. His exuberance indeed is one of the mainstays of the comedy.—*Orlando North-

The Standard Casting Directory, Inc.,
318 Traft Building,
Hollywood, California.

Gentlemen:

The Standard Casting Directory plays just as important a part, in its own way, in the making of Hunt Stromberg Productions as do the story, the continuity and the cameras themselves.

I have never yet produced a picture without referring to its pages, and I cannot see how any screen player can afford to miss representation in it.

It might interest you to know that Trilby Clark, whom I recently placed under a long term contract, first came to my attention through the Standard Casting Directory.

Please accept my sincere good wishes for the continued success you most assuredly deserve.

Cordially,

FRANK HOWARD CLARK

Established 1912
Writer and Editor

I have just finished the adaptation and continuity of George Walsh's latest picture for I. E. Chadwick, directed by Scott Dunlap, and worked with the company on location where I had the opportunity of becoming well acquainted with one of the finest and most sincere gentlemen it has ever been my pleasure to be associated with. I am referring to George Walsh. Allow me to take this space to pay tribute to George, quiet, unassuming, congenial and modest, he is not only human to the core but he does not suffer from the enlarged hatband that most of our screen celebrities are afflicted with. George, you have my sincere regards and I wish you the everlasting success that you deserve.

"If I Had Only Known!"

Everyone wants to know the conditions he or she is about to meet on the Road to Success.

We all make more or less shrewd guesses about what will happen next and listen carefully to the opinions of those who have guessed right a few times.

But

Most of us get a big grin when somebody comes along and says he can predict future conditions by means of a Science. Perhaps this is because we have had unpleasant experiences with fortune tellers, clairvoyants, psychics or fakers. When thinking of me, however, please do not confuse my work with any of these or with religion, superstition, fate or predestination.

My Specialty

Is the application of Psychology, Astrology and Character Analysis to the peculiar and individual conditions in

The Picture Profession

It is all based on tested laws, mathematical accuracy, and a knowledge of people and a knowledge of this business in particular.

Is Prediction Practical?

It most certainly is! I do it daily and the results in hard cash are very agreeable to my clients, among whom are many successful directors, stars, feature players, business men and women and managers of artists, as well as producers, casting directors and distributors. All work is confidential.
